

A Prayer of Commitment

Every part of this earth is sacred.
Whatever befalls the Earth befalls the children of the Earth.
The air is precious;
for all of us share the same breath
This we know, the Earth does not belong to us:
we belong to the Earth
this we know, all things are connected;
like the blood which unites one family
our God is the same God,
whose compassion is equal for all.
For we did not weave the web of life:
We are merely a strand in it.
Whatever we do to the web
We do to ourselves.
In gratitude for this planet of life
We commit ourselves to do all we can to uphold and preserve life in all its diversity.
