

The ancient Indian Holy Scripture Yajur Veda says:

OM

Peace be in the universe,
Peace be in the atmosphere,
Peace be on earth,
Peace be in the waters,
Peace be in the herbs and fruits,
Peace be in the plants and trees,
Peace be in the elements,
Peace of the Supreme,
Peace be everywhere,
Peace, only peace,
Peace be in my mind and heart.

OM Peace, Peace, Peace.

I offer my humble prayer to the Almighty to bless his divine creation and free them from torture, pain, suffering and illnesses.“

„Dear God, Thou art the Supreme!
Thou art Omniscient and Omnipresent, Thou art the Antaryami – only Thee can place in the human mind the seed of preservation of Life and in our hearts the seed of Love towards all forms of living beings.

This way Thee can inhibit the suffering on this planet, to take roots, to grow and spread a beautiful and graceful tree in our minds, our speeches and in our actions: Don't kill animals!
Fight for a clean environment! Sustain, preserve and take care of our collective divine Nature – outwardly and inwardly!“
